

CMB6-P

CEILING MOUNT

The CMB6-P is engineered for ease of installation, offering compatibility with the specified camera housings and junction boxes. Its durable construction supports a wide range of indoor and outdoor surveillance applications, making it ideal for commercial, industrial, and residential environments. The mount is specifically designed to support the weight and functionality of the DBASEX-P junction box and the PTZXX or QUAD camera housings.

